Template for review. This document is a starting point, not legal advice. Have it reviewed by a licensed attorney in your jurisdiction before you sign or rely on it.

For the business issuing this form: the notice above is addressed to you, not to applicants. Once every [BRACKETED BLANK] is completed and the form has been reviewed, remove this box before you give the form to anyone applying.

Return the completed form to [PEOPLE OPERATIONS CONTACT]. Sections 1 to 10 are for the applicant. Section 11 is completed by People Operations after an offer has been made. Leave blank anything that does not apply to you.

9 Equal opportunity

9.1 Software da Database User 13 decides who to hire on the work the role requires and nothing else. Applications are shortlisted against written criteria agreed before any application is read, and every candidate interviewed is asked the same core questions. Reasonable adjustments are made at every stage of recruitment, and asking for one never counts against you. The full policy is “Equal opportunity and respect at work”.

9.2 If you need an adjustment to take part in the recruitment process, describe it here (optional)

10 Applicant declaration

10.1 The information I have given on this form is true and complete to the best of my knowledge.

10.2 I understand that a statement on this form that I knew to be false may lead to an offer being withdrawn.

10.3 I understand that the information on this form is used to assess my application, and is kept and deleted as described in [PRIVACY NOTICE OR RECORDS RETENTION POLICY].

10.4 ☐ I confirm the statements in 10.1 to 10.3.

11 For People Operations use only — after an offer

Complete this section only after an offer has been made. Record that each check was done in person, not what was seen: do not write document numbers on this form or attach copies of documents to it (see section 3).

11.1 ☐ Identity verified in person

11.2 ☐ Right-to-work verified in person

11.3 Verified by

11.4 Date

Note for the business: which documents may be accepted, how they must be checked, and whether a separate record of the check must be kept differ between jurisdictions. Have this procedure reviewed by your attorney before relying on it.
